Harm A Fly (BWWM Romantic Mystery)

Synopsis

Note: This is a mystery/suspense novel with a romance subplot. This is NOT an HEA romance. Book was previously published as Always Be My Baby under the pen name Jillena. Seattle rich boy Lance Bridges's life turns upside down when Genesis Fly, a stripper with a shady reputation, accuses him of rape. As everyone including the media begins to turn on Lance he finds support in the arms of his beautiful, black girlfriend Cassidy who vows to stand by him no matter what. Yet not even Cassidy's love can't save Lance when DNA results seem to prove that Lance raped Genesis. Lance swears he's innocent, putting the investigating detectives Eva Mathis and Clint Nash at odds with each other. Just when things are at their worst, Lance becomes involved in a murder investigation that could jeopardize his relationship with Cassidy, ruin his father's business, and take away Lance's freedom forever.

Customer Reviews

I saw this book in my suggested reading list and thought why not? The plot seemed different and the cover is really nice. The good: Interesting plot good concepts- it kept my interest until the end. There is a real depth to the story there were no loose ends or questions that were not addressedThe bad:grammar and punctuationThere is no world building in this what so ever. What I mean is, at one point I had no idea where or when this story was taking place, Washington D.C. or state.Character Development. It was hard for me to remember who was who (Amanda was the mother and Eva was the detective, but they blended together sometimes) partly because their were no descriptions and also because everyone's "voice" was the same. No matter who was talking they all sounded like the same character over and over. They all seemed to revert to "street" talk if they got emotional. its hard for me to believe rich, educated Caucasians talk like street thugs when they get angry.Terrible metaphors and comparisons- So many were tired clichés and just didn't make senseDrama. I'm not referring to the edge of your seat kind, but too theatrics. Yes, a mystery needs drama, but not theatrics. What I'm referring to is that friend you know that reacts to everything like they are set on 11. They have no chill. Taymar Braxton. Imagine a book full of people who go from normal to Tamar every time something happens in their lives. This made me think that the characters were flippant and crass I couldn't relate to them or believe that the world/characters that were created. I just felt that all the characters were too emotional.Poor taste.
