Synopsis

SPECIAL OFFER$2.99 (Regularly priced: $4.99) Due to the falling economy, companies, banks and firms in Wall Street were laying off workers by the day. In Scully & Pershing, one associate, Samantha Kofer, was given the option to take a furlough which entailed being an intern in a qualified non-profit organization. Choosing this option would secure Samantha her health benefits and her job back in a year or two. Though hesitant at first, she did take it and ended up interning in Mountain Legal Aid Clinic located in Brady, Virginia. This was a good 6-hour drive away from New York. Samantha thought she could just leave if the work didn't appeal to her.Read more....Download your copy today! for a limited time discount of only $2.99! Customer Reviews

Not as good as his books usually are.

I expected a typical page turner by John Grisham. I seriously doubted this was by the same author. Very dull and disappointing. I would have given zero stars had that been an option.

I think all of his novels are interesting and easy to read. Can't wait to read another one. John Grisham is my favorite author.

This book really opens your eyes! The stories about the people effected by coal companies were just heartbreaking!
