Synopsis

Glenna Munroe is about as tired of meddling family as she can be. She decides to escape herself and flies to Scotland just before Christmas. On the flight she meets a man who will be her destiny, but not in the traditional sense. She visits a Scottish castle, she meets a Scottish lord, but what happens next throws a new dynamic into Glenna's life. She is thrust from a cliff and falls back into time nearly 800 years. Conall Kilgour lost his bride to childbirth a month ago. His son lives, however. He is in mourning but has the support of his cousin and his staff. He begins to dream of a woman he must rescue from a dangerous cliff on his lands. When his horse begins to feel Conall's dream, he also begins to visit the cliff. Time and language have no boundary in the draw that Conall immediately feels for Glenna Munroe, even if her clan is the enemy. What will it take for the language barrier and clan conflicts to be overcome and lead these two toward love?
