Customer Reviews

After reading the Four Volumes of this series, I can just say that this is a wonderful, heartbreaking, addictive story of love, lust, regrets and second chances. All four volumes are well written, very detailed, in dual POV, making us understand exactly what's going through the characters' mind. One of the best stories I read so far! SILK Vol. 1 This is the first book of a new series that will leave you completely obsessed, addicted and thrilled!! I love Ian, I think he's a great man, troubled, with serious addictions, but he sure is confident and leave no doubt that what he wants he gets! And he's a writer, a sexy writer! Kristina is an actress, a shining star, with fears and doubts about herself, broken... she's everything she hides from the public eye and of course, she becomes Ian's muse. When they meet for the first time, sparks fly, they get completely obsessed for each other. Their relationship grows until the draft of his next book becomes too much for Kristina... This story is sexy, the sex scenes are steamy, and the plot suspenseful enough to make you crave for more! Silk Vol. 2 Omissions, Regrets, Obsessions, Cravings, Heartbreaking Love, Fear, Hope... this is Silk Volume Two. After spending some time without one another, Ian and Kristina realize they can't stay away from each other. Their love pulls them together like a magnet. Ian's book is published and a success now that his muse is back, but soon a business trip will destroy everything... Kristina can't stand the feeling of hurting Ian, so she keeps to herself some news that will hurt him more than she ever thought. It's amazing how the author can explore these emotions all together and bring us a book that will keep us reading and craving for more!

Silk: Volume 1 What a great beginning to a four part serial!! Volume one of Silk, introduces the reader to the main characters that this story is about. Ian, is a New York Times best selling author and Kristina is a movie actress. Both of these characters are flawed, in different but similar ways. Besides the baggage that they are carrying around, they are both all too familiar with what it means to be addicted or obsessed, to something or someone. They are both desperately seeking acceptance for who they really are. This is a short, steamy, and emotional read that will leave you wanting more. The good news is the next volume is only a few short weeks away. K.M. Scott has done it again, she has a way of bringing her characters to life, and making the reader feel their pain or their happiness. Please do not read this book if you are expecting a happily ever after at the end, because it does not happen in this volume. But if you love to read about two people coming together, feeling each others pain and trying to make their way through life the best way they know how, then give it a try. As for me, I cannot wait on volume two, because I want to know more about these two imperfect souls and where they go from here. Silk: Volume Two Ian and Kristina, two seriously flawed people. They are both addicted and obsessed, not only to one another, but other things also. Sometimes they cannot live together and at the same time they cannot live apart. This volume finds that the couple have been apart for a week, which has lead Ian to do some things that made me want to strangle him. Once again they find their way back to one another, and Ian having his muse back can write again.
