Double Team: A Menage Romance

Synopsis

The Presidentâ™s daughter. Two professional athletes. One giant scandal. They'll show her that two bad boys are better than one.â©â©I can't stand arrogant bad boys - especially not when they're my loud, obnoxious new next-door neighbors.â Not even when they come in muscled, tattooed, too-hot-for-their-own-good packages.â©I'm a good girl - successful, responsible, and smart.â I have to be - the eyes of the nation are on me.â©I'm the daughter of the President of the United States.â©Dating a filthy, cocky, possessive football player would be the ultimate scandal.â©Falling in love with TWO arrogant athletes in the middle of my father's re-election campaign?â©That would be another thing entirely.lâ™m twice as screwed.â©Author's Note: This is a MFM mÃ©nage romance! So if you're not into the idea of two hot athletes falling head over heels for one girl, then take a pass on this one! There are no M/M scenes â“ this is all about the woman. Thereâ™s basically no football in here, either. But letâ™s be real - are you reading one of my books for the football? ;)

Customer Reviews

Grace Monroe Sullivan, 26, is the presidentâ™s daughter. Single, she lives a quiet life and heads a childrenâ™s charity foundation. Uncomplicated, conservative, and boring all go out the door the moment she comes face to face with her new next door neighbor. Neighbors. Both of them. Aiden Jackson and Noah Ashby are high profile football players. Best friends since childhood, they are a bit of opposites but they do share a few things in common. They could have any woman they want, but one meeting with Grace and they suddenly only want her. Boys will be boys, and boys will be competitive and play dirty. What's a good girl to do when these two hunks set their sights on the same conquest? This book is straight out hot and hilarious! This story has it all including some things you might not have thought of: "bongo drums and drones; lawnmowers and love confessions; packages and pranks; moonshine and knitting, star spangled butt plugs and bananas; secret service and secret meetings. The list of fun little surprises could go on. There's just no shortage of shenanigans when it comes to the bad boys from West Bend. If you are looking for a hot read, this is most definitely one to pick up. It totally delivers on the dirty interactions without skimping on the character development or plot. I absolutely adored the way the tale played out. It was a ton of fun, and Noah and Aiden were such a riot: "you'll want your own double team long before you reach the last page. The premise was fresh and upbeat and there's plenty of entertaining banter. Oh, there's one particular part that would normally leave me frustrated with the heroine, but how it played out in this scenario with the boys was hilarious and an ingenious twist on a common romance troupe.
